

Historic article – illustration only

Advert for conveyancing

Are you buying or selling a property this Summer?...If so, let the ~~xxxxxxx~~ conveyancing team assist you...

We have an excellent reputation and long-term record as one of the leading conveyancing teams in the Channel Islands. Our clients commend us on our professionalism, positivity and enthusiasm to get the job done as quickly and efficiently as possible.

Our complete and responsive service means that we are instructed by clients on several hundred conveyances each year, across a wide range of residential and commercial properties.

As well as conveyancing services, if you are buying to let, or entering into a tenancy agreement, it is important to know that the documentation is correct. Our team has specialists who will be pleased to advise on the preparation of tenancy agreements and leases, or assist with their interpretation.

Visit our website where we have laid out everything you need - practical guides to assist you on buying your home; methods of joint ownership; advice on buying on the Open Market; online conveyancing forms; a list of all the Guernsey estate agents together with links to their websites; a mortgage calculator; and, most important of all, how to contact us.

Xxxxxx conveyancing team - we look forward to working with you.

END

Copyright James Arklie. All rights reserved.

